What do you like about working here?
Seeing a variety of tissues from many different animals and seeing the effects of disease/injury at a microscopic level is fascinating. Also, my coworkers are great!

What are your hobbies or something we don't know about you?
I'm a huge fan of basketball, both watching and playing.

What are your future plans?
After I graduate from UW with a bachelor's, I plan on pursuing graduate schooling.