What do you like about working here?
My favorite part about working at the lab is doing necropsies and being able to work one on one with the pathologists.

What are your hobbies or something we don’t know about you?
I am a member of the university symphony and have been playing the viola for ten years.

What are your future plans?
After I graduate next year, I plan on attending vet school. I hope to ultimately work with wildlife.